

Teachers have the right to instruct the class using the methods they deem best as long as it does not violate any statutes of the State or policy of the local Board. Teachers should inform the Principal before trying something new.

Teachers will have a voice in selecting teaching materials for their particular subject or area.

LEGAL REFERENCE:

Board Action

ADOPTED: 9/19/77

Reviewed 11/8/99