

Employee use of electronic communication and entertainment devices may interfere with or disrupt the educational process as well as distract personnel from their job responsibilities. Personnel are required to limit their use of electronic communication and entertainment devices to emergencies or during authorized breaks or the employee's personal preparation time. Such devices are prohibited from being used during instructional time unless the specific use is consistent with the lesson plan being presented.

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination.

DEFINITION

"Electronic communication and entertainment devices" shall include, but not be limited to, personal cell phones, iPods, Blackberries, pagers, MP3 players, and other similar devices or media players, without regard to the commercial name or manufacturer of the device.
